REFLECTION ON THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Every Second Sunday of Lent, the Lord offers us in his Transfiguration, a glimpse of the glory that is his with the Father. This glory will one day be ours too, when the Pascal Mystery of the death and resurrection of Jesus is brought to fulfillment in us. Our Baptism into Jesus calls us to follow him faithfully, on the path of discipleship, through the Passion and Cross to Risen Glory. Our Lenten journey and the Eucharist help us to seek the Lord's face. We rejoice in his living presence among us and find strength for bearing more faithful witness to Jesus in the world. Our time in this holy season of prayer, fasting, abstinence and charity prepares us to renew our Baptismal (Covenant) Promises at Easter. In our reading from the Hebrew Scriptures, the Book of Genesis, we listen once again to God offering a covenant (last week to Noah and all creation) this week to Abraham. A covenant that calls us to obedience. The Lord says to Abraham: I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command. St. Paul celebrates the perfect obedience of Jesus, whose radiant glory, glimpsed in the Transfiguration, will one day be ours. The Collect (Opening Prayer) of the Mass and the Gospel remind us that "we must listen to God's beloved Son and respond to Jesus' invitation to follow him in obedient faith and selfless love."
